About OAHP
The Ohio Association of Health Plans (OAHP) represents 16 member plans providing health insurance coverage to over 9 million Ohioans. Ohio’s health plans include commercial insurers, Medicaid managed care plans and Medicare Advantage Plans. OAHP also partners with Affiliate and Supporting members to further support the mission of the association.

As the statewide trade association for the health insurance industry, the OAHP is a leading organization that actively promotes and advocates for quality health care benefits for all consumers in Ohio.

Our Board of Trustees
The OAHP Board of Trustees is made up of representatives from member plans elected by the Delegates. Board members serve three-year terms and the Board elects its officers each year.

Chair: Travis Garrison, Humana
Vice Chair: Michelle Stoughton, Anthem
Treasurer: Joe Novak, AultCare

Board Members:
Bradley Fischer, Aetna, Inc.
Bruce Hill, Buckeye Health Plan
Kurt Lewis, UnitedHealthcare
Jack Randolph, Paramount Health Care
Stephen Ringel, CareSource
Holly Saelens, Molina Healthcare of Ohio

Our Focus
Legislative & Regulatory Issues
Through OAHP, member health plans have a significant voice in the development of state health care policy. OAHP members offer innovative benefits to over 9 million Ohioans through employer-sponsored coverage, the individual market, and public programs such as Medicare and Medicaid. OAHP advocates on behalf of its members regarding legislation and regulations affecting all of these business lines, and on general business and insurance issues. In addition, its members provide thought leadership to policymakers on issues of health care and health care management. OAHP is the voice for Ohio’s health insurance industry through the support of public policies that will bring affordable quality health care benefits to all Ohioans.

Partnerships & Opportunities
OAHP actively engages in coalition building with diverse stakeholders and advocacy groups to foster cooperation and a better understanding of the important role of providers, health plans, and consumers in Ohio’s health care system. In addition to collaborating with stakeholders to address common areas of interest, OAHP also serves as the public voice for our industry in Ohio.

Educational Programs
OAHP sponsors educational programs that provide valuable, up-to-date information about national trends, policy implementation and best practices. The most prominent educational event of the year is the Annual Convention and Trade Show.

Comprised of 16 member plans, the Ohio Association of Health Plans (OAHP) is the leading state trade association representing the health insurance industry. OAHP’s member plans are aligned to a core mission of advocating for quality health care and providing Ohio’s health care consumers with access to a variety of affordable health insurance benefits. Guided by that philosophy, our plans are providing benefits to more than 9 million Ohioans through employer-sponsored coverage, the individual insurance market, and public programs such as Medicare, Medicaid and the Health Insurance Exchange.

Ohio is home to a competitive and diverse insurance market that provides purchasers of health care services with coverage that best fits their needs. OAHP’s membership includes national and homegrown carriers, as well as regional plans. Some are for-profit entities, while others are non-profit businesses. Several plans are part of integrated health systems that assist individuals in navigating through the full continuum of care, while others provide administrative support to Ohio’s employers who assume the financial risk of covering their employees through self-insurance.

Health plans are no longer just payers of insurance claims. Those days are long gone. Today, plans are coordinators and integrators of care who are helping to navigate everyday Ohioans through the complex health care delivery system. Plan personnel are not just actuaries and claims administrators, but they are physicians, pharmacists, nurses, social workers, care managers and community connectors. This hands-on approach is what our current landscape demands.

In recent years, health plans have expanded their presence throughout Ohio to better engage the people they serve. Today, the health insurance industry is one of Ohio’s key economic drivers, employing nearly 22,000 Ohioans and accounting for over $1.3 billion in annual payroll. An insurance landscape of this nature fosters ongoing innovation through the constant development of best practices.

Immediately following the November election, both the incoming Administration and Congress wasted no time indicating that federal health care reform would soon be subject to significant change. While Congress continues to debate potential next steps, Ohio’s health plans are working to sustain, improve and strengthen Ohio’s insurance market. Our work focuses on four simple premises:

• Ohio’s private and public health insurance markets must be healthy, financially sustainable, and competitive in the years to come.
• Ohioans must have access to affordable, quality health care through innovative solutions that address the underlying cost of health care and improve health outcomes.
• Empowering health care consumers through improved engagement, increased transparency of health care costs, greater provider accountability, and incentivizing efforts to access care at the right place at the right time.
• Ohio must identify and leverage private market innovation to drive quality, access, and affordability in health care for Ohioans.

Ohio’s health plans will continue to lead the way by working collaboratively with policymakers, providers and consumers to identify creative solutions to ensure long-term stability and improvement.

The 2017 OAHP Annual Convention and Trade Show is designed for the most visionary thinkers in health care today.
Strength and Resilience
Heather Abbott is a survivor of the 2013 Boston Marathon bombing. Heather will share her story of overcoming life-changing adversity with perseverance and a newfound passion to “pay it forward.” Since that life-altering day in April 2015, Heather has travelled the country to share her story and show the power of positive-thinking and compassion.

Health Care Reform:
A View from Capitol Hill
Congressman Pat Tiberi has represented Ohio Congressional 12th District for 16 years. He currently serves as Chairman of the House Ways and Means Subcommittee on Health. Congressman Tiberi has been a leader both on Capitol Hill and in Ohio, advocating for a thoughtful repeal and replacement approach of the Affordable Care Act. As part of OAHHP’s Annual Convention, Congressman Tiberi will share his vision of meaningful change and what that means for Ohio’s health insurance markets and Ohio’s health care consumers.

A Legal Perspective on Health Care Reform and What that Means for Ohio’s Insurance Markets
Doug Anderson is an attorney with Squire Patton Boggs, specializing in insurance law, regulation and compliance. Doug will share his insight into what next steps Congress may take in overhauling the federal health care law, and how Ohio’s health plan leaders can prepare for the next stages in health policy.

Industry Leaders’ View on Health Care Reform: A National Industry Perspective
Joshua Keepes is the Regional Director for State Affairs for the America’s Health Insurance Plans (AHIP) and Jeff Myers is the President and CEO of the Medicaid Health Plans of America (MHPA). AHIP and MHPA are valued partners with Ohio’s health insurance leaders. Both associations have worked extensively with national and state policymakers to drive market-based solutions and develop private-public partnerships to improve the access, affordability, and value of health care coverage. Joshua and Jeff will present their insights on federal health care reform and how their national industry work helps to drive important public policy changes for Ohioans.

Ohio’s Health Insurance Markets: The Regulator’s Perspective
Directors Jillian Froment and Barbara Sears of the Ohio Departments of Insurance and Medicaid will join us to share their unique regulatory perspectives on improving Ohio’s private and public health insurance markets. The Directors will speak to the changes needed to sustain, improve, and strengthen Ohio’s markets, as well as share details on current efforts that are driving such change.

Sustaining, Improving and Strengthening Ohio’s Health Insurance Markets: The CEO’s Perspective
Health plan CEOs are thought leaders, innovators, and visionaries. They are leading the way to improve care delivery and health outcomes in Ohio and across the country. Leadership among the respective plans are driving state-of-the-art change to ensure that consumers receive the right care, at the right time, in the right setting. The panel will discuss the approaches they are using to drive meaningful impact and strategic partnerships that have resulted in consequential provider and patient engagement.

Ohio’s Health Care Delivery System: The Policymaker’s Perspective
Ohio Senate and House leaders are focused on public policies aimed to ensure quality, accessible healthcare at an affordable cost. As the new administration and congressional leaders work on a repeal and replacement plan for the Affordable Care Act, Ohio’s policymakers will discuss their priorities and efforts to ensure access to quality and affordable care.

Ohio’s Health Care Delivery System: The State Associations’ Perspective
Ohio ranks 46th nationally in terms of health value. This means that Ohioans are spending more on health care, but living less healthy lives than residents of other states. Representatives from Ohio’s hospitals, physicians, pharmacists, and nurses will discuss legislative and regulatory initiatives aimed at improving Ohio’s population health outcomes.
