

State of the Industry: Ohio's Commercial Health Plans

22,687

Total number of Ohioans employed by commercial health plans in the state.

$76,347

Average salary of Ohioans employed by commercial health plans, nearly 44% higher than the annual mean wage.

SOURCE: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

$15 million

Amount of charitable donations by Ohio's commercial health plans in 2022. In addition, more than 30,000 employee volunteer hours were spent in communities across Ohio.

$1.4 billion

Aggregate employee payroll across Ohio's commercial health plans.

5,720,000

Ohio residents insured by commercial health plans in the state. (Equals 48% of Ohio's population).

SOURCE: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Ohio employees enrolled in a fully insured plan

Ohio employees enrolled in a self-insured plan

Ohio employers are ahead of national trends showing 72% of large employers are self-insured, up from 57% in 2011.

SOURCE: Kaiser Family Foundation.

96.4

Cents of every dollar spent on health care premiums that commercial plans put directly into patient care, quality improvement and operations. Just 3.6 cents of every dollar are profit.

SOURCE: AHIP.

